

Comments on pictures: Natural size versus enlargement

GCP_Plate37c

The olives are in general very small (average 30 – 40 mm). A magnifying glass may be necessary to truly admire all the details the artist has carved on these small kernels. Enlargements up to two times or more is done in this book only as an exception to show examples of the incredible carved details.

CHN782

≈ x3.0

≈ x2.0

≈ x1.0

Enlargements